

Bifurcation of Syllabus
Library and Information Science – 339

	I TMA (40% of Syllabus)	II Public Examination (60% of Syllabus)
Module	06 lessons
Module 1 Library, Information and Society (04 Lessons)	L-2: Types of Libraries and Information centres: Public, Academic, Special and National L-3: Modern Library: Automated, digital and Virtual	L-1: Library and Information Centres, concepts and role in Society L-4: Five Laws of Library Science
Module 2 Information Sources (04 Lessons)	L-7: Reference Sources L-8: E-Resources	L-5: Overview of Information Sources L-6: Types of Information Sources
Module 3 Organization of Information Sources (03 Lessons)	L-10: Processing of Library Material: classification and Cataloguing	L-9: Organization of Library Material: classification and Cataloguing L-11: Arrangement and Maintenance of Library Material
Module 4 Library and Information Services (03 Lessons)	L-14: Modern Library Services	L-12: Library and Information Services for the users.L-13: Traditional Library Services: Responsive and Anticipatory
Module 5(A) Management of Libraries (04 Lessons) OR		L-15A : Library System and Management L-16A: Library Staff L-17A: Library users L-18A: Librarianship as a career
Module 5(B) Information Retrieval Systems (04 Lessons)		L-15B: Information Retrieval Concept and scope L-16B: Information Retrieval tools: Catalogue, Index L-17B: Search Techniques: Basic and Advanced L-18B: Web Based Search